

Proxy Login Instructions for Parents and Guardians

What is a proxy and how does it work?

Students at Oglethorpe University are able to grant another party online access to their student account, that person is called their proxy. A proxy will only see the information that has been authorized by the student and access must be re-authorized every semester. Both the student and designated proxy will receive an email notification when re-authorization is required. At this time, a student can only grant proxy access to their financial statements and account activity.

Your proxy account information will be emailed to the email address that was entered during set up. All messages regarding your proxy access will come from helpdesk@oglethorpe.edu.

How do I login?

If you already have a username and password for Oglethorpe University, then you will receive an email letting you know that proxy access has been added to your account. An example email is below:

If you have an existing an Oglethorpe username and password, those are also your credentials for the proxy portal. Please bookmark this link for easy access: Oglethorpe Proxy Portal.
